Excerpt: . and polities, from the FishMan. yThis therefore might suggest that the Babylonians were among the more ancient of the ancient races, as their records declare, and that they were a survival in mass of the destroyed heredities that existed before the Flood. The other alternative seems to be, that from, and collateral to Noah, mankind multiplied and was fruitful in the Noahtic epoch, and filled the ancient world; and this view suggests immense reaches of time to which historical chronology does not apply. May we conjecture that the Most Ancient 126 THE FLOOD IN NO WISE Church was not destroyed as a human race, but as a Church, and became a Paganism, devastated of all its internal enormities, and offering a simple residuum of ignorant and miry common clay for the future Potter of the Ancient Church to work with? The survivals of the Ancient, the Jewish, and the Christian Church as nations and peoples after their internal life is devastated, offer some analogy favouring this supposition. And although Assyria, Egypt, Babylon, and the Canaanitish nations perished, yet India, China, and the Far JEast to which the Ancient Church extended, are great communities, nations and peoples whose traditions and mythologies show their Noahtic origin, and which await the future Church of the Gentiles. 81. It is said in Genesis, And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth. And God said...
