Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Johnny Prinkey (illustrator). 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Courageous Cubs is a wonderful tale about 2 young lion cubs, personified as confused kids growing up in foster care or a home with conflicts. The main characters, Omar and Andy, are youthful lion cubs that come from a disrupted home. The story tells some of the day to day adventures that the two encounter in the foster care system, whether it be the living with and moving from family to family, or the visits they have with their biological or adoptive families. Never having the opportunity to develop an identity of their own, Omar and Andy are introduced to a great lion named Adonai. Adonai helps them in their quest for normalcy and a better life. When you call me, I will come, Life will have a great outcome! A better day is on the way, So call on me, you ll be okay! -- King Adonai Omar and Andy, are very much like other children that grow up in the system. They get angry, scared, confused, doubtful and hurt; and for good...
