L. In th Leaving the learner to discover the proper application of compound adjectives in the only way which I conceive to be practicable, namely, by his own observations I shall therefore endeavour to account for certain consequences, resulting from that specific relation, which almost every jimplc, as well as many compound adjeElives, whether Arabic or Persian, will be found to denote. The Consequences to which I allude are, first, the common use or adjectives in the place of substantive nouns;...
