

Lilla's Feast: A True Story of Love, War, and a Passion For Food

By Frances Osborne

Transworld Publishers Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Lilla's Feast: A True Story of Love, War, and a Passion For Food, Frances Osborne, Lilla Eckford, interned in a Japanese civilian camp in China during the second world war after an extraordinary early life, passed her time by compiling a book about the joys of food. This precious cookery book, now in the possession of the Imperial War Museum, inspired Lilla's great-granddaughter, Frances Osborne, to investigate her enthralling story. Lilla's "Feast" spans the world from China to India and finally to England over a hundred years, and blends together personal history, world events, period atmosphere and family anecdotes into a brilliantly vibrant and poignant story.
