Dover Publications Inc., United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Fred Pegram (illustrator). 208 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In this stirring tale from the days of wooden ships, a young sailor enters the king s service with some firm but untried egalitarian notions. Equality Jack known formally as Mr. Midshipman Easy is initiated into the rigid hierarchy of the Royal Navy during the Napoleonic Wars. His adventures were recounted in 1836 by the founder and master of naval fiction, Captain Frederick Marryat (17921848), whoentered the service as a fourteen-year-old midshipman and resignedtwenty-four years later to devote himself to writing. He based this novel on his own experiences sailing with Lord Thomas Cochrane, the real-life model forHoratio Hornblower and Jack Aubrey. Marryat combines a sharp wit and sense of irony with realism born of firsthand knowledge of seafaring life. Joseph Conrad praised his works as enthralling, adding, His greatness is undeniable. Virginia Woolf declared, Marryat has the power to set us in the midst of ships and men and sea and sky, all vivid, credible, authentic. This low-priced Dover edition of Marryat s classic includes 37 illustrations and features an Introduction by author John Harland, an expert on maritime literature.
