When I took leave of the island, I carried on board for relics the great goats-skin cap I had made, my umbrella, and my parrot; also I forgot not to take the money I formerly mentioned, which had lain by me so long useless, that it was grown rusty, or tarnished, and could hardly pass for silver till it had been rubbed and handled, as also the money I found in the wreck of the Spanish ship. Thus, then, I left the island the 19th of December, as I found by the ships account, in the year 1686, after I had been upon it eight-and-twenty years, two months, and nineteen...
