

Praying in Indian Country

By Cynthia Poten

Avid Readers Publishing Group, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Mary Prisland (illustrator). 221 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Cynthia Poten creates sumptuous poemscapes which deserve a second reading, and often a third. These Whitman-like verses of modest length shapeshift each time we return to them, with simple images and characters that rise out of the misty surface of words and then become much more. Like a wall of hieroglyphs in a remote rainforest temple, these elusive poems increase in scope and power as we continue to contemplate their significance. Holographic dreamscapes, childhood flashbacks, and kaleidoscopic travel logs sing together in their own consistent harmony. Each poem tells a story, often about the slow, silent erosion of the shamanic way of life, and of the sacredness of place. These vignettes capture the subtle clashes between a natural world of divinely inspired perfection and a human world out of balance, brought to a climax by disturbing juxtapositions of purity and destruction. Poten offers us a shadowbox of images that slowly reveal the sad future of a pirated planet, and of a despoiling of paradise that will take seven generations to heal...
