Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Val s Big Escape is about a young boy, who along with his siblings, was sent to an orphanage to live after his father and mother died. His greatest desire was to return to his hometown to live with his older brother who was newly married. After a disagreement with the nuns who ran the orphanage, he made his escape and proceeded to have an adventurous train ride back to his hometown. During the ride, he met many interesting travel companions including hobos, tramps, runaways and desperadoes. Some of his travel companions were kind and generous. Some were calloused and mean. His goal was to simply survive the trip, but in the process he comforted some of his companions while he brought others to justice.
