Loreburnl The motto of the town arms is Aloreburn or Loreburn--a word of which the precise import has never been ascertained. It is certain, however, that it was the ancient slogan or war-cry of the inhabitants; and it is believed to be a corruption of the words Lower Burn, having reference to a small rivulet, the banks of which used to be the rendezvous of the burgesses, when they assembled in arms on the approach of a hostile force. Accordingly, a street in the immediate neighbourhood of the original course of the stream in question, bears the name of Loreburn Street. --New Stat. Account of Scotland, article Dumfries. It is not easy to believe that the rivulet was called Lower Burn, as distinguishing it from some other rivulet, nether being the word usually adopted in Scotland to express such an...
