Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Verses on Modern Redemptive Philosophy The writing of this booklet has been a labor of love and its publication a matter of conscience. Three years or more was devoted to the studies leading to its production and it is the writer s purpose to dedicate it, disinterestedly, to the object for which it was written, that of aiding in the establishment of God s Kingdom among men and women by awakening a desire for a better understanding of their inseparable relationships with one another and with God through all the physical, vital, mental and governmental functions of which they form an intelligent, unifying religious worship is the only possible regulating medium. Such a religion would of necessity be democratic. To this end, he has published and will distribute the present edition of one thousand copies at his own expense, but he hopes to receive co-operation and assistance, in the further extension of this work, from those of his readers with whom his views and expressions meet approval. A coupon is attached, following this Introductory, which may be filled out and copies will be sent as requested so far as funds so received will permit. It is suggested that a minimum of twenty-five cents be sent for each copy ordered. This will cover, it is thought, the expense of publishing and mailing, but the margin allowed for failure to reciprocate in this way is very small. Should any be especially interested and feel able to send larger amounts, the writer will employ such funds faithfully in the furtherance of this work and will make full accounting of all such funds in future editions, over the certificate...
